RAILROAD MEN'S DEMANDS UP TO PRESIDENT WILSON

Hines and Chiefs are Unable to Reach an Agreement

OFFICIALS STILL HAVE HOPES

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11—Failing to reach an agreement with the representatives of the more than 2,000,000 railroad employes on demands for increased wages, Director General Hines decided tonight to submit the whole case to President Wilson for decision.

The appeal to the president is to be taken at the request of the Union leaders after they had conferred with Mr. Hines for two hours late today, and after he had informed them there was no hope of an agreement under present conditions. Mr. Hines will sent to the white house tomorrow the statements of the unions together with his own representations in the controversy. The president thus is called on to determine whether the government will grant the increased wages or transfer the wage demand controversy to the corporations soon to regain control of their properties.

Submission of the claims and arguments to the president does not mean a final break, railroad administration officials explained. Neither member of Mr. Hines staff nor the union spokesmen indicated they felt that a deadlock had arrived. Regardless of the president's decision in the matter, the differences could be ironed out after return of the railroads thru machinery likely to be set up by pending legislation it was explained.

Mr. Hines' refusal to grant the employes demands apparently was based entirely on the fact that federal control soon will cease. The director general was understood to have kept this angle consistently before the union men together with the argument that it would be unfair to the thousands of owners of railroad stock to increase the expenditures of their corporations when the government would be responsible for the revenues obtained for so brief a period.

Mr. Hines said the union representatives had presented their views with "ability and frankness" and that, while the conferences had not solved the problems before it the real issues involved now were more clearly developed than at any time since the wage demands were first presented last July.

Hines' Statement.

In explanation of his action the director general issued the following statement:

"Since February 3, the director general has had frequent conferences with the chief executives of the railroad labor organizations for the purpose of devising means for disposing of the pending claims for wage increases. During these conferences the executives of the labor organiaztions have expressed their views with great ability and frankness. The director general has not been able to agree with them as to how the problem should be disposed of in view of the early termination of federal control and is now laying before the president the representations of the executives of the organizations and also his own report for the purpose of obtaining the president's decision in the premises. In any event, the conferences have been decidedly helpful in bringing out a clearer development as to the real issues involved and as to the character of evidence pertinent to those issues and the discussion thruout has been characterized by courtesy as well as candor and with a sincere purpose on the part of all to try to find a solution."

At the white house late tonight it was said that Director General Hines would present the data in the controversy to Secretary Tumulty tomorrow morning and that it would be sent to the president immediately.

Submission of the matter to the president was in accordance with information given out earlier in the day at the white house that after making a decision in the matter, Mr. Hines would report to the president.

The separate grievances and claims of the brotherhood of railroad trainmen were not included by Mr. Hines in the data sent to the white house. W. G. Lee, president of the trainmen will confer again tomorrow with Mr. Hines.

In a statement tonight Mr. Lee declared that the government had not succeeded in reducing the cost of living and he, therefore, felt he could no longer hold the demands in abeyance.

"The trainmen," said Lee, "take the position that more than a reasonable time has since elapsed and that the cost of living

WOOD'S POSITION ON TREATY AND LEAGUE

Borahs Request For Views of Presidential Candidates, General Wood Declares For Immediate Ratification With Existing Lodge Reservations

(By The Associated Press)

Chicago, Feb. 11.—General Leonard Wood in his reply today to the request of Senator William E. Borah for the views of presidential candidates on the league of nations and the peace treaty said he believed "that we should accept the league of nations as modified and safeguarded by the existing Lodge reservations."

General Wood declared that in his opinion the people at large had indicated that they favored the treaty, provided America's rights were fully safeguarded, and that he did not believe it necessary to delay consideration of the document for a general election.

The text of the reply, made public tonight follows:

"I believe we should accept the league of nations as modified and safeguarded by the existing Lodge reservations—reservations which leave America absolutely free and untrammelled to follow the will of her own people in all questions of foreign and domestic policy.

"I, of course, at all times favor getting the views of the people of the country where it is practicable. However, in view of the fact that the people have clearly indicated—as I see it—that they are in favor of the treaty if our traditional policies, interests and freedom of action are fully safeguarded it seems unnecessary to delay this most important question for a general election in which their views could hardly be more decisively expressed than they have already been.

"With reference to the foreign policy of this government, I am in favor of and shall continue to be in favor of the well established foreign policy which conserves and promotes the interests of our own country. I do not think this treaty with the reservations impairs that policy. It does not entangle us: it leaves us free to exercise our own judgment. It is temporary if we choose to have it so: we can retire on two years' notice.

"One aim of America's foreign policy has always been the promotion of the peace of the world. In order to accomplish this end her people must be free in any situation to stand for righteousness according to their judgment. As an important means to that end, instrumentalities should be created and developed by which, consistently with this freedom, the momentum of the other free and peace loving nations of the world, acting concurrently with us, can be added to our efforts."

LEAGUE COUNCIL MEETS FOR SECOND TIME IN LONDON

Many Very Important Questions Will be Taken Up

DISCUSS ENTRY OF IRELAND

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The council of the League of Nations met today in the historic picture gallery of St. James' palace, which was built by Henry VIII. Immediately below his portrait, a large table was placed for the accomodation of the members of the council before whom Leon Bourgeois, the French delegate delivered the opening address.

The remainder of the gallery was apportioned for the 160 invited guests, including all the ambasadors and ministers of the allied, associated and neutral powers, others distinguished public men and the press.

The opening meeting at noon was formal, to deal with the programs of the proceedings of the subsequent meetings, which will occupy Thursday as well as today, some sessions being public and others private. This afternoon's session, Arthur J. Balfour British representative, presiding was private.

The nations represented at the meeting were Belgium, Brazil, Great Britain, France, Greece, Italy, Japan and Spain.

The present meeting of the league council has a business agenda to which the eight representatives addressed themselves this afternoon, each having a specific subject to bring to the council. Mr. Balfour brought up the question of Ireland's entry into the league of nations on which the Swiss government desired the opinion of the council. Other matters discussed had to do with the Saar Basin, the appointment of the members of the governing commission and the appointment of a high commissioner for the free city of Danzig.

The council entrusted M. Bourgeois with organization of the permanent court of international justice provided for by Article 14 of the League covenant, and consideration of the proposed list of international jurists to be invited to prepare plans for constitution of the court; Count Quinones de Leon, Spanish ambassador to France with consideration of the duties of the league relating to transit, port, waterways and railways; Dr. Gastoa da Cunha, Brazilian ambassador to France with the constitution of an international body for dealing with health problems, and Baron Keishiro Matsui, Japanese ambassador to France, with the league's guarantee with reference to the Polish minority treaty.

There was little show of public interest in the meeting of the council, few sightseers standing in the palace court. There was no police guard, but two of the king's scarlet coated marshals were stationed at the entrance of the palace to direct the arrivals.

The representatives of the various countries were shown upstairs thru the historic arsenal, tapestry chamber and Queen Anne's rooms, following the route for the king's levees into the picture gallery in which the Balkan ministers discussed the terms of peace in 1912.

The addresses of Mr. Balfour and M. Beourgeois were interpreted into French and English. Mr. Balfour with reference to the decision to hold secret sessions explained:

"We have concluded that the details of our work cannot advantageously take place in open assembly."

He declared that if the work of the council was to be done efficiently, it was desirable and even necessary that the detailed discussions be carried on with perfect freedom.

LODGE PROPOSES MODIFICATION OF HIS RESERVATIONS

Work on Change to Article Ten and the Monroe Doctrine

NO DEBATE ON TREATY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, February 11.—Steps to eliminate many collateral issues of the peace treaty fight were taken today on the floor while negotiations were being resumed privately for a compromise on the two principal points remaining in controversy article ten and the Monroe doctrine. Modification of eight of the fourteen Republican reservations on the basis of agreements by the bi-partisan conference was proposed formally by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader. Four of the remaining six are said to have been already accepted without change by the Democratic leaders.

Progress also was claimed in the article ten negotiations, a new draft of the reservation being declared by the mild reservation Republicans to have received approval from Senator Lodge and from some Democratic friends of the treaty. The draft was denounced by Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska the Democratic leader however, as constituting not a compromise but a surrender and much doubt remained as to its ultimate acceptance. The new reservation would deny this nation's obligation to preserve the integrity of other league members by the use of its military or naval forces, or by the economic boycott, or by other means, unless congress acted in each specific case.

Senator Lodge's move in proposing modifications was in accordance with a plan agreed upon by Republican leaders several days go. Not all of the changes embodied in his proposal had been accepted by the Democrats in the bi-partisan conference it was said and some Democratic opposition was forecast to parts of the revised program. The general impression in most quarters however was that these differences could be disposed of without extended debate.

The disagreement over the Monroe Doctrine also was thrown into the background the leaders apparently believing that it might be adjusted quickly if a compromise were reached on article ten.

There was no debate on the treaty during the day's session, Senator Lodge presenting his proposed modifications without comment.

"The United States assumes no obligation to preserve by the use of its military or naval forces, or by the economic boycott or by any other means, the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations—whether members of the league or not—under the provisions of article ten, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress, which under the constitution has the sole power to declare war, shall by act or joint resolution so provide," the text of this reservation says.

WORLD FINANCIAL CONFERENCE URGED

British Chancellor of Exchequer Willing To Participate If Meeting Is Called By Neutral Country Or League of Nations.

(By The Associated Press)

London, Feb. 11.—J. Austin Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer announced today that the government was willing to participate in an international conference if invited by one of the neutral nations or by the league of nations, on being satisfield that the conference would assume a really representative character.

The announcement of Mr. Chamberlain was made in reply to a recent memorial from bankers and others. The chancellor said the government wished to make it absolutely clear that in the event of Great Britain's participation, the government could not support or take a share in any scheme involving an addition to the liabilities of Great Britain for expenditure in America.

Mr. Chamberlain agreed that the picture drawn by the authors of the memorial was not exaggerated. He declared the attitude of the American government was a matter of first importance, as it seemed doubtful whether America's participation could be attained and this must gravely affect the influence and utility of such a conference. The government, however, was unwilling to omit any act calculated to alleviate the situation, and, therefore, would participate on the stipulated conditions. The government Mr. Chamberlain continued was impressed with the futility of attempting to solve the problem by new borrowing, either by internal or external loans the cessation of which had been laid down as the cardinal feature of its policy, nor could the government grant further advances to other countries.

Mr. Chamberlain recalled the British government's notification in November of the impossibility of sharing in measures of relief unless assured of the cooperation of the United States and said the movement in foreign exchange since November emphasized that difficulty. Thereforee, to avoid possible misconception it was desired to point out that if the conference recommended a grant of credits in any form the government would be unable to support any scheme involving an addition to its liabilities for expenditures in the United States.

MEXICAN AMBASSADOR TO U. S. ON LEAVE

Will Return To Native Country To Investigate Political Situation May Be Presidential Candidate.

(By The Associated Press)

Washington, Feb. 1.—Ygnacio Bonillas, Mexican ambassador to the United States will leave Washington next month on leave of absence, his purpose being to investigate the political situation in Mexico with a view to deciding whether he will accept the nomination for the presidency tendered him by a number of organizations.

The ambassador said he would hold conferences with Generals Obregon and Gonzales, active aspirants for the presidency as well as government officials and influential private citizens before he announces whether he himself would be a candidate. He said there was a distinct movement in Mexico for a civilian president as was manifest by Obregon's request that the senate refuse to confirm his military rank and commission and by the fact that Gonzales had obtained a long leave of absence from the army to conduct his campaign as a civilian. Mr. Bonillas also said that as both Obregon and Gonzales were good friends of his and he was convinced either would make a good president, if both would agree to abide by the result of the election and not start a new revolution, he would not be a candidate since his chief desire was to retire to private life.

Bids were received for roads in Edgar, Piatt, Clark, Macon, McHenry and LaSalle counties.

CLAIM HELME PETITIONS FORGED BY SEN. NEWBERRY

Candidacy of Democrat Under Fire by Government

$800,000 SPENT BY DEFENDANT

(By The Associated Press)

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 11.—The candidacy of James W. Helme in the Democratic senatorial primary of 1918 was under fire by the government in the Newberry elections conspiracy case at both sessions of the United States district court today. Starting with a sapping operation designed to show that some signatures to Helme nominating petitions, circulated at the behest of the Truman H. Newberry senatorial campaign committee were forged, the assault was switched later in the day to a frontal operation. A Grand Rapids printer swore that William J. Mickel, the second Democratic defendant arranged with him for printing the blank petitions and a local hotel manager said Mickel rented headquarters in a local hotel at a cost of $5 a week.

This testimony was brought out immediaately after Frank C. Dailey, assistant attorney general had read to the jury a certified copy of the report which the Newberry committee filed with the state in September 1918. The report showed receipts and expenditures of approximately $176,000.

The government also kept up its steady bombardment on the money issue of the trial getting into the record a quotation from one defendant that the campaign cost around $800,000 and from another that he saw on a table in the office of Paul King, Newberry campaign manager, a pile of money that "looked like a million dollars."

Frank Sparks, associated editor of the Grand Rapids Herald said he talked last spring with Richard R. Fletcher, state labor commissioner, in the latter's office at Lansing. He said he told Fletcher that he heard the expenses of the campaign were nearer $500,000 than the $176,000 reported, and Fletcher replied that it was "nearer $800,000 and he knew what he was talking about."

The money on the table was described to the grand jury by Roman F. Glocheski, a Grand Rapids defendant, according to C. R. Higbee, clerk of the grand jury and the last witness of the day. He testified several days ago concerning testimony given by three field agents of the campaign and today was recalled to relate what Golcheski and Frank O. Gilbert of Bay City told the inquisitors. Higbee was subjected to another searching preliminary questioning by Martin W. Littleton of the defense before he was allowed to read from a typewritten transcript of notes he made in grand jury room, but retained his smile thruout the ordeal.

The jury was again instructed by Judge Clarence W. Sessions that Higbee's testimony could be used only against the defendants whom he claimed to quote. His general cross-examination was postponed until tomorrow but Hal Smith, attorney for Frank W. Blair, had the grand juror state plainly that checks which came to Glocheski signed by his client had been handed to him by Blair personally.

According to Higbee's version of Golcheski's story, Paul King summoned the Grand Rapids attorney to Detroit, told him that William Alden Smith of this city would not be a candidate for the senate, and hired him at $150 a month and expenses to travel among the Poles of the state in the Newberry interest.

Glocheski was quoted as saying that King warned him to keep his real mission under cover and that he received regularly checks signed by Blair and drawn on a bank across the street from the Newberry headquarters in Detroit.

On a second visit to the grand

TO PROMOTE COMRADESHIP.

Fathers and sons will meet around banquet tables in the various churches tonight. The man who started this banquet idea a few years ago was on the right track. He sought to bring about a better understanding between fathers and sons, more comradeship and the is no doubt but that this commingling has its mutual benefits.

WILL KEEP EYE ON KANSAS.

Governor Allen of Kansas declares that the new industrial court established in that state will make it illegal for railroad maintenance of way men to go on a strike Feb. 17, as is now proposed. It would be almost worth the losses that go with a strike to have the Kansas court idea tested out.

If the plan works for the protection of the public as it is designed, the rest of the country will owe a great debt to the western state.

MANY FREAK PROPOSALS.

Every day that the constitutional convention is in session new proposals are brought in for consideration. Some of them are worth while but for the most part they must be eventually consigned to the scrap heap. Probably most of the delegates bring in proposals they know are "freak" and do so because of the feeling that they are satisfying some of their constituents. But before the convention adjourns the public will have to understand that the constitutional proposals must be boiled down and summarized into comparatively small space if people vote intelligently when the proposals come before the public.

GOOD POLITICS.

The Federation of Labor is not infallible but is certainly following the course of political wisdom in not seeking to guide its ends thru te organization of a labor party. At least, Mr. Gompers and other leaders are very much opposed to a third party plan. These leaders know that the best results for them will be had in holding themselves neutral and supporting the candidates of either of the great parties that seem to them most promising.

This same course has been followed in past political history by the advocates of certain principles or measures, and when followed consistently thru a period of years has brougnt desired results.

IS A JACKSONVILLE PRODUCT

Prof. Crathorne of the university of Illinois has written a book on vocational training which is attracting more than the usual interest and attention. It is probable that there are not many Jacksonville people who remember that Prof. Crathorne was for years a resident of this city. The family home was on Clay avenue and the professor as a lad was employed in a local grocery store. His liking for mathematics was known in his youthful days and so it was no surprise when after graduating from the university he become a member of the faculty.

In the study of mathematics he is a recognized leader and his work on vocational training indicates his thoro understanding of the big questions involved.

THE AGE OF MEN.

It was not so very many years ago that a man who had passed the age of seventy was accounted as entirely useless in the business world, and in fact of very little general value to society. But that idea has been swept away by the records and statistics showing how large a place in the business world is occupied by men from 65 to 75 years of age, and in many instances older.

Thomas Edison yesterday selebrated his 73d birthday. He is able to perform many more hours of work each day than falls to the lot of the average man of 50 years. Some of Mr. Edison's most notable achievements have been since his 70th birthday, and he has inventions on which he is still working that he believes will be of greater service to humanity than anything he has previously produced.

HOW THE RESERVOIR HELPED.

The condition of Morgan county roads this winter has been a matter of frequent favorable comment. These good roads have been a matter of great convenience to residents of the country and have meant a lot to Jacksonville merchants.

Other than for oiled roads, the good condition cannot be credited to any group of individuals or officials. The fact that roads have been passable has been because of the very small rainfall. When you think back thru the weeks and into 1919, you will find that there has not been a general heavy rainfall in Morgan county since ovember. This brings to mind that would have been the condition in Jacksonville without the additional water storage which was provided by the reservoir.

With only Morgan lake and the north wells to draw upon, the city would certainly have been forced to severe surtailment and no doubt the scarcity of the supply would have reached the danger stage. The reservoir was not completed at the time the water storage began, and it has not been full at any time. But the millions of gallons in storage have been sufficient to save the day.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

The Other Fellow.

We keep on sadly saying, "why don't our neighbors save- The chumps are not obeying our counsel wise and grave. They blow themselves insanely, their orgies do not halt, although we've told them plainly to put their dimes in salt. We've argued and implored them, we who are up to snuff; for long, long hours we've bored them with wise Ben Franklin stuff; and still they blow their plunder for gilt and gingerbread, and bid us go to thunder and likewise soak our heads." And we who talk so sanely, and weep the loud boohoo, hand out our wisdom vainly, because we're spenders too. We're strong on admonition, on precepts high and fine; our neighbors' sad condition brings from our eyes the brine; we'd like to see them dropping their coin in savings banks, and not keep hades popping with wanton, wasteful pranks. And then we buy some rubies, or cars not made of tin, as wild as other boobies who blow their money in. Among the shops we wander, to see what is for sale; for thingumbobs we squander the useful, wholesome kale. And then when we are busted we take our homeward way and say we are disgusted, the way men blow their pay.

ROUTT HIGH TAKES VERSAILLES MEASURE

Defeat Visitors By Top Heavy Score of 47 to 5—Routt showed Excellent form — Play Spalding Here Friday Night

Routt high defeated Versailles high at Liberty hall Friday night by the top heavy score of 47 to 5.

There was never any doubt about the result after the first minutes play as the visitors were clearly outclassed.

In addition to this Routt displayed the best floor work it has shown this year. The men had a good eye for the basket and tossed them almost at will, the Versailles guards seeming unable to solve Routt's offense.

Carson was the bright particular star. He tossed twelve baskets during the game and also did excellent work on defense, Zell was the next high in point making, getting 11 points. Costello tossed four baskets and two substitutes injected into the game by Coach Conlin also got in the scoring column.

Myers and Sides made Versailles points. The visitors were kept so completely covered that they never had much chance to show any team work or get close to the baskets.

Friday night Spalding Institute of Peoria will play Routt. The Spalding team has not lost a game this year. It has a bunch of fast players.

However, Routt has been coming fast of late and showing good form. The players are determined to play the game every minute Friday night. If they do they have a chance to win. The game will probably decide the championship of the state among Catholic high schools. The score:

11 HENS IDLE; NOW LAY 221 EGGS A MONTH

Mrs. Young Almost Gave Up Raising Chickens. Then She Tried this Plan.

"When I accepted your offer and tried Don Sung, I had been getting 1 or 2 eggs every other day. The next month, using 50 cents worth of Don Sung, my 11 hens laid 221 eggs. I almost gave up raising chickens, but now I have decided to raise as many as I can."—Mrs. F. C. Young, Bellefonte, Pa.

Feed is too expensive to waste on idle hens. You can easily start your hens laying and keep them laying even in coldest winter. To prove it all you need do is accept our offer, as Mrs. Young did.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

TO DELIVER ADDRESS.

Horace H. Bancroft will deliver the address today at a luncheon to be given by the Rotary club of Galesburg. His theme will be "The Life of Lincoln." In connection with the work of the Centennial commission Mr. Bancroft had occasion to make an address at Galesburg and his invitation for today was the result of the earlier visit.

International Harvester Company Implements

Compare the various makes of implements today and you will find a striking similarity; as a general rule, they are based on the same principle. Yet it was inevitable that some inventive genius would perfect some implements that gives better satisfaction than others. Consequently that line gains a REPUTATION.

With the vast wealth that there is in the United States today it would be a simple matter to build factories as large as the INTERNAEIONAL HARVESTER COMPANY'S factories. Yet when the time would arrive to sell their implements farmers would not buy them because they would be untried.

The INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER COMPANY'S implements have been used and tried for many years and they have fulfilled every demand made of them and consequently they have gained the desired reputation for dependability.

They are built to give years of service and are sold at reasonable prices. The company employs thousands of efficient men to assist their local dealers in adjusting the implements thus backing the dealers and assuring the purchaser of the success of the machine.

Many farmers are now ordering their implements and repairs for spring. "Go thou and do likewise."

We have a full line of INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER repairs for mowers and binders.

We also have the most serviceable hand-made harness which we guarantee as well as a line of oils and paints Cream Separators, Gasoline Engines One-Minute Washing Machine, American Fencing, and a full line of Hardware.

CAVALRY OFFICER BEFORE COMMITTEE

Declares Many Germans Fought With Mexican Army — Two Bodies Found Among Killed.

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 11.—At least two Germans were fighting in the Mexican army on August 27, 1918, at Nogales, according to the testimony of Captain Frederick T. Herman, of the Eighth cavalry, before the senate subcommittee investigating the Mexican situation today.

He said their bodies were found among the Mexicans killed. Captain Herman, a lieutenant colonel commanding at Nogales at the time of the fight denied the official statement of the Mexican commander that the Mexican force was composed of civilians.

The investigation of the action and the incidents preceding it he told the committee indicated clearly the greater part of the Mexicans engaged were soldiers altho most of them had dressed in civilian clothes and that the fighting had been planned and was directed by their commanding officer and his assistants. The American casualties were five killed and 31 wounded. Three civilians also were killed and five wounded. United States army intelligence reports showed the Mexicans buried after the fight at least 115.

Much of the testimony taken today was in executive session. It had to do with the forced evacuation of the Mormon colonies in Chihuahua. The committee also learned the details of the efforts made by the American military authorities to have brought to trial Lieutenant Juan Azpeitia for the murder of David Troib, December 2, 1918, an American soldier. He was killed on the Mixican side of the river near El Paso. The return of his body to the American side where the autopsy was held, was made the basis of a protest by the Mexican authorities against any such action by them. Negotiations resulted in three examinations of the body, one by a Mexican military medical officer and the arrest and preliminary trial of Lieutenant Azpeitia, who confessed but claimed he acted in self defense. It was shown the American soldier was unarmed and the Mexican witnesses testified the lieutenant did not act in self defense.

Continuing his account of the fight at Nogales, Captain Herman said a shot was fired by a sentry on the international line in an effort to prevent its unauthorized crossing by some one. Within five minutes, he declared, general firing was in progress from Mexican positions that had been previously occupied and that machine gun fire was directed at the Americans from a point where no such gun had been the day before.

When an armistice was agreed to at 7 o'clock the Mexican order to cease firing was given by bugle and was executed in the usual military manner. There was nothing, he insisted, to indicate the fighting was being done by civilians as claimed except the civilian clothing worn by many of those engaged.

The Mexican consul at Nogales sent to Captain Herman, who was wounded the suggestion that if the Americans would raise a white flag the Mexicans would cease firing. The reply was "the Americans have no white flags; they don't use them."

A few minutes later a white flag over the Mexican side of the town resulted in a cessation of fire and the conference that was followed by the return of the Americans to their own side of the international line.

WILL NOT ATTEND MEETING OF LEAGUE

London, Feb. 11.—John W. Davis, American ambassador to the court of St. James will not attend either the second meeting of the council of the league of nations or the meeting of the premiers of Great Britain, France and Italy, which will be held here next week, unless he is instructed by Washington, according to an announcement at the American embassy. Such instructions have not been received, it is said.

Washington, Feb. 11.—Ambassador Davis at London will not be instructed to attend the meetings of the supreme council and the council of the league of nations, it was officially stated today. These meetings have been transferred from Paris and will be held in London until some of the exact status of Switzerland in its relation to the league makes it possible to again consider Geneva as a meeting place.

Ambassador Wallace attended the council meetings at Paris during the discussion of the Fiume question and others but his functions were limited to those of an observer and reporter.

Because of the extensive American interests, financial and commercial, which will be affected by the work of the reparations commission operating under the league council, the state department will keep itself informed as to events at London.

jury room Glocheski was said to have described a table in King's office, about three feet long, which was "half covered with bills and currency in denominations of $50 and $100."

"He thought at the time there must have been a million dollars there," Higbee read from his notes.

Mr. Littleton asked the court to rule out this remark as it was "directed against King and could not be so used in this case."

The application was denied.

Higbee testified that Frank O. Gilbert described himself to the grand jury as grand lecturer of the Masonic Lodge. He said Gilbert related that James McGregor, a Newberry field agent agreed to give him $50 a month to "talk Newberry" and paid him four months salary, handing him the money personally in Bay City. McGregor was also quoted as saying that he "simply talked in favor of Newberry in towns he visited and on trains."

has not been reduced, but instead has been increased since that time, and that it is now up to the federal government to make good the pledge made by the president in his letter of last August as understood by labor."

Hines Confers With Palmer

Events leading up to the disagreement between the conferees came rapidly. During the course of the day Mr. Hines conferred with Attorney General Palmer, acquainting him with details of the controversy. The meeting was not construed as indicating action by the department of justice, however, Mr. Palmer declared. The attorney general later met all members of the union delegation with the exception of representatives of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employes who have called a strike for February 17. This meeting lasted two hours at the conclusion of which Mr. Hines met with the members of his staff relative to the railroad administration's next move. The union leaders who, at yesterday's session, had presented a second epitome of their views, also held a separate conference at which it was definitely determined to close their case.

B. M. Jewell, acting president of the railway employes' department of the American Federation of Labor, told Mr. Hines the union officials had no further proposals t omake and could offer nothing in amplification of the arguments already presented. Jewell also told the director general the employers' representatives believed that the controversy should go to the president again inasmuch as it was at the request of Mr. Wilson that the original demands had been held in abeyance.

Director General Hines remained at his desk late tonight preparing the administration's side of the the argument, some of which had been presented verbally during today's session. All material having a bearing on the controversy was expected to b esent to the white house as soon as compiled.

Mr. Hines was unable to meet today the committee representing the maintenance of ways employes headed by J. B. Malloy, vice president of the organization. The committee reached Washington today from Detroit after a call for a strike on February 17, had been issued. An appointment was made fo rthe committee to see Mr. Hines tomorrow.

GABY DESLYS, FAMOUS FRENCH ACTRESS, DEAD

PARIS, Feb. 11.—Gaby Deslys, the French actress and dancer, died today.

Gaby Deslys had recently undergone several operations for an infection of the throat. Early in December she was considered to be in a grave condition and her relatives were summoned from America.

The name of Gaby Deslys became known after former King Manuel of Portugal displayed his infatuation for her, ten years or more ago. In 1911 she arrived in America and made her appearance on the New York stage. She made a second visit to America in 1915.

The throat infection from which the actress suffered is said to have been a complication of influenza.

MAJOR LEAGUES IN JOINT SESSION

Hermann Resigns from National Commission—Woodruff May be Named as Successor.

Chicago, Feb. 11. — Major leagues club owners today met in joint session and received the recommendations of the joint nominating committee for chairman of th enational basebell commission to succeed August Hermann, whose resignation became effective today. Five names were submitted by th ecommittee and final decision was left to President John Heydler of the National League and B. B. Johnson of the American League who will announce their decision at their discretion. The names of men submitted according to club owners were:

Judge K. M. Landis, Chicago; William Edwards, New York; State Senator J. E. Walker, New York; Harvey T. Woodruff, sporting editor, Chicago Tribune; J. Conway Toole of New York.

Of the foregoing names those of Senator Walker and Mr. Woodruff were most prominently spoken of fo rthe position of chairman. Retiring Chairman Hermann declared to newspapermen that he favored the selection of Woodruff as his successor, because he was of the opinion that a newspaperman was best fitted for the position.

A resolution commending the work of Hermann as chairmann of the national commission was presented and adopted by the sixteen club owners. The resolution went back to the days when Hermann went into the office with the birth of the commission. It was largely to Mr. Hermann's efforts that he brought about the accord which ended the strife between the American and National Leagues, th eresolution stated, and it also said in every baseball event, he had borne an active and honorable part, while his keen judgment of situations, his remarkable mastery and memory of detail and untiring energy in forwarding his plans, have been the marvel of his associates.

HAVE DIFFICULTY IN SELECTING JURY

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., Feb. 11.—Sixteen jurors had been passed by both sides subject to peremptory challenge or further examination to try Harry E. Wooton, charged with kidnaping in connection with the Bisgee deportations, when court adjourned tonight.

Four jurymen were passed this afternoon. Fifty seven talesmen of the last document were examined today. Altho 267 had reported from five hundred names drawn all but ninety two were excused for statute reasons or because they were employes of defendant companies. This leaves thirty five to be examined and it was considered certain a new venire would have to be drawn before the jury was completed.

R. S. M'KINNEY HELD PURE BRED HOG SALE

Disposed of Big Type Poland China Sows — Prices Did not Range High Because of Bad Road Conditions and Sickness —Top Price $207.50.

R. S. McKinney held a sale of pure bred big type Poland China sows at Oak Crest farm seven miles west of Jacksonville and three miles east of Chapin Wednesday.

Owing to so much sickness thruout the country and bad road conditions many buyers from others states were not present. This resulted in some of the finest sows ever offered for sale in the county, going at prices far below their actual value.

Speaking of the sale last night Mr. McKinney said that he lost heavily on the sale but that there was great satisfaction in being able to get such fine stock distributed among hog raisers in this and surrounding counties.

Mr. McKinney also said he was well pleased with the home auctioneers who worked at the sale. Heretofore he has had foreign auctioneers but he believes the home men can give as good satisfaction and get as good results as the imported men.

The work on the block was done by Cols. C. J. Wright, Murrayville; Finis Seymour, Franklin; Charles M. Strawn, Alexander, and J. L. Henry of Jacksonville.

Col. W. H. Crum worked in the ring all the time during the sale. Col. Bedingfield and Col. Coker were unable to be present.

Col. Thomas J. Smith of Bluffs a famous hog man of this section of the state, was present. Col. Smith is a fine story teller and kept the crowd in an excellent humor during the day.

The top price of the day was paid by W. W. Carter and son, $207.50 for a grand daughter of grand champion Big Tim. The sale totaled over $5,500. The Ladies' Aid of Concord M. E. church served lunch. The buyers and prices paid are given hereunder:

MORE FOR CANDY AND MOVIES THAN FOR TEACHERS

B. E. McCormick, superintendent of the LaCrosse, Wisconsin, public schools, has made a survey of the schools of that city showing how much money pupils spend for movies, candy and other amusements. The results of his investigation are being used as the basis of a thrift campaign among the students and parents, the latter through the parent teachers' associations. The questionnaire sent out covered the one week from September 25 to October 2. The 4014 pupils reporting to him spent for movies in the week $531.81; for other amusements $1337.50, and for candy and sweets $891.22, making a total of $2760.53.

On this basis the total number of children in the public schools of that city would spend for these luxuries in the thirty-nine weeks of the school year $107,660.67. Of this the high school pupils would spend $57,374.46, or $4000 more than the total yearly salaries to high school teachers. The $50,286.21 that would be spent by grade school pupils on this same basis would be about one-half the total payroll of the grade teachers. The total thus expended by grade and high school pupils would be about two-thirds of the total appropriations for maintenance of the city schools.

All of which indicates that it is easy for the average citizen to kick about school taxes while doling out an almost equal amount of spending money to the kids to be wasted in creating work for the dentists and in giving these same kids a big boost along the way of extravagant habits all their lives.

Some of the old-timers who remember that their yearly allowance of spending money was 5 cents for firecrackers on the glorious Fourth may well marvel at the big change from the time when kids spent practically no money till they earned it, and when even what they earned had to be turned over to dad.

FRUIT AND VEGETABLES FROM CALIFORNIA

J. W. Swales, who has been living in California, for many years has just sent to his nephew Charles F. Leach, assistant cashier of the Farmers State Bank & Trust Co., a parcel post package including fruits and vegetables that are now in season in California. Peas, celery, and some other vegetable together with lemons, oranges, grape fruit are in the package, and made an attractive display in the bank window yesterday.

Mr. Swales was one of the '49rs who went west in search of gold. He ranked among the fortunate ones and is known as one of the substantial residents of Oakland, which has so long been his home. Just at present he is visiting in southern California.

Jess Fuller, of Murrayville, was in the city on business yesterday.

EDW. M'AHAN SEES MANY CHANGES HERE

Former Resident Comments on Betterment in Business District —Is Prospering in St. Joseph, Missouri.

Edward McAhan, who came here to bring the remains of his mother, Mrs. J. R. McAhan, returned last night to his home in St. Joseph, Mo. Mr. McAhan, who was for many years a jeweler in the Russell & Lyon store here, has been a resident in St. Joseph a long time. He established a store in the western city about 1900 and the business which includes a confectionery, restaurant and news stand, has grown in a very satisfactory way.

Mr. McAhan said yesterday that he has not visited in Jacksonvile before in 20 years and could not but note the numerous changes in the business district and the improvement in store buildings. He said that the coming of automobiles had no doubt increased the trade area of Jacksonville in a way to partially account for the many substantial improvements that could be noted.

Unlike some former residents who return after a long period of absence, Mr. McAhan found a great many of his earlier friends here.

WHEAT PROSPECTS COUNTED AS GOOD

John W. Lazenby Says Moisture Has Been Sufficient and Fields Soon to Be in Good Condition.

There is a good deal of speculation these days about the condition of winter wheat. John W. Lazenby, who was in the city yesterday said that he had not examined many fields carefully but believed that from general observation that the wheat is in satisfactory condition. Ordinarily wheat is better when it has been covered with snow for a part of the winter. This hasn't been a condition this year, but according to Mr. Lazenby the wheat has had sufficient moisture and unless it is killed thru a thawing and freezing process during the next few weeks, it will probably be safe.

The government guaranteed price on wheat expires June 1, that is before the 1920 crop in this locality will be harvested. Nevertheless, there is a general feeling that wheat prices will continue on high levels because the crop in the United States the past year was not nearly so large as predicted, and the world demand is stronger than normal because the production in other countries by comparison with the pre-war period fell off in a large way.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

RED CROSS HOSPITAL PLAN COMPLETED

Rooms In New Wing at Passavant Available For Flu Patients

The special committee appointed by the Morgan county Red Cross chapter to act in the flu epidemic, yesterday completed arrangements with the executive board of Passavant hospital for the use of the "wing" at the hospital. This building has heat and lights and the rooms will be equipped by the Red Cross in a temporary way and as quickly as needed.

Rev. W. E. Collins is chairman of the Red Cross committee and Miss Good, superintendent of Passavant hospital, will have general direction of the hospital facilities.

The Red Cross committee feels very fortunate in being able to secure the hearty co-operation of the Passavant hospital officials at this time. It was the desire of the Passavant authorities to do everything in their power which made possible the present arrangement.

The meals for patients in the "wing" will be prepared in the hospital kitchen and will be conveyed to the flu patients by Red Cross workers.

Miss Austin, nurse for the Red Cross society, will for the present devote all of her time to this epidemic work and can be reached at Red Cross headquarters at the public library, Illinois 1598, Bell 116.

It is the expectation that physicians will co-operate with the Red Cross in giving needed attention to flu patients who are not otherwise being cared for. While there is some improvement noted in general health conditions, it is known that there are many families where the sick have not been receiving the necessary attention and care because of the inability to secure nurses.

Physicians have visited some of these homes and have left realizing that further care was needed but unable to suggest where the workers could be secured. The good work the Red Cross and the hospital are planning to do will be set in motion today and it is felt that the rooms in the wing thus made available will make a distinct service possible.

NAMES FOR NEW LAKE

I like the suggestion of "a well known citizen" in yesterday's issue that we name the lake "Lake Luna."

"Dear, dear Luna!" I heard a beautiful maiden sigh only last night as she stood leaning over the balcony and I stood down against a light post. Ah! perhaps that is why I like the name.

As "well known citizen" says, the moon influences the tides, and there is a dog tied in our neighbor's back yard that is also influenced by it, for he is continually baying and barking at the moon.

Let's call it Lake Luna.

Yours,

PROCLAMATION BY MAYOR CRABTREE

Asks Observance of Father and Son Week—Local Churches Will Observe Week.

In accordance with the national plan Mayor Crabtree yesterday issued a proclamation calling attention to the observance of Father and Son week.

The dates for observance are February 16 to 22. However because of the anniversary of Lincoln's birth most of the local churches decided to hold banquets this week. The proclamation follows:

To the People of Jacksonville:—

Because it has an important bearing on civic welfare in Jacksonville, as well as on individual welfare in countless cases, I feel it my duty to call attention to the well conceived plan for a "Father and Son Week."

I, therefore, call upon the fathers of this city and request their co-operation in this important movement by attending with their sons at least one of the meetings to be held during the "Father and Son Week." I hope the men who have no sons will befriend the boys who have no fathers.

E. E. CRABTREE,
Mayor.

Mrs. Susan Carlson is president of the society, and the officers and members are genuinely interested

Very much of the same enthusism prevails at Literberry, where a conference was held Wednesday. The church people who are undertaking the campaign say that there will be no trouble about Literberry meeting its full obligation.

FARMERS INSTITUTE SESSIONS PLANNED

Twenty-Fifth Annual Meeting Will Be Held in Carbondale This Month.

Delegates from every county in the state will be in attendance the the twenty-fifth annual session of the Illinois Farmers' Institute and department of household science which will be held in Carbondale, Feb. 18, 19 and 20. The meeting will be addressed by the leading agricultural and household science authorities of Illnois and the middle west, and promises to be the greatest convention of the kind ever held in Southern Illinois.

The sessions will be held in the new auditorium of the Southern Illinois State Normal university, and every accommodation will be offered the delegates and visitors from every part of the state. The program will deal with the up to the minute problems now confronting farm men and women. The important and practical farm and home subjects will be handled in a practical way by experienced men and women who know rural conditions first hand, and are capable of presenting information of greatest value and help at this time.

The chief work of the conference will be the furthering the practical and economical application of methods which have already been proven in accomplishing the best and most desirable results in modern farm practice and efficient homemaking. The war has taugh many lessons in food production, and the ways and means of greatest conservation, not alone of food, but in every line of human activity and effort. A progrom of more vital and far reaching consequence, not only to farm folks, but to those of the towns and cities, has never been staked in linois.

Soil and Crop Problems.

The first day will be devoted to the consideration of practical methods of soil and crop improvement, the forenoon session being a memorial to the life and work of Dr. Cyril G. Hopkins. Dean Davenport, of the University of Illinois, will speak of Dr. Hopkins as a world figure in soil investigational work and of the far reaching importance and effect of his remarkable scientific discoveries which demonstrated the possibility of a permanent and profitable agriculture. Dr. George Bouyoucos, of the Michigan agricultural College, who accompanied Dr. Hopkins as his personal interpreter and assistant in his mission to Greece last year, will tell of this great war work. Prof. J. G. Mosier, of the University of Illinois, will present a detailed account of the establishment of and the results on the soil experiment fields thruout the state. Brother Leo, of Notre Dame university, ndiana, and Frank I. Mann, of Gilman, will speak of the value of Dr. Hopkins' work from the standpoint of the practical farmer, and Ralph Allen, of Delavan, will present plans for founding a suitable and permanent memorial to this great soil authority and teacher.

Experience with the use of limestone and phosphate on Southern Illinois farms will be given in a series of short ten-minute talks by practical farmers. Prominent among these speakers are John F. Walker of Sheller; Robert Clanahan, Golconda; J. R. Midyett, Ewing; Robert Endicott, Villa Ridge; and H. C. McCarrell, Kinderhook.

How best to combat insect pests and crop diseases common to Southern Illinois sections will be discussed by Dr. S. A. Forbes, state entomologist, Urbana, and Prof. F. L. Stevens, Univercity of Illinois. These two subjects are of particular importance to all farmers and will offer much practical suggestions for every day use on the farm. This session will be worth untold value to all improving their soils and in preventing unnecessary losses from insect ravages and disease attacks on farm crops.

U. S. Senator to Speak.

Prominent among the speakers on Thursday, Feb. 19, will be U. S. Senator Medill McCormick. Senenigu tnv cIICI NUa..yt TAO ator McCormick will address the convention at the evening session, making the trip from Washington, D. C., in order to meet the farmers of the state on this important occasion. He will speak upon national problems as they effect the agricultural interests of Illinois, and will no doubt bring an interesting and valuable message for all.

Prof. A. W. Nolan, supervisor of agriculture, Illinois board of vocational education, will speak the first evening on the "Service of Science or Contributions of Science to Agriculture." He will also tell of the vocational educational work, as provided under the federal Smith-Hughes law, which is now in successful operation in over fifty high schools thruout the state.

Special Livestock Sessions.

Livestock matters of great importance will be taken upon the second day of the convention. Meat production problems, with special reference to the possibilities of Southern Illinois in the breeding and marketing of feeders will be discussed by P. T. Chapman, of Vienna. The present and growing demand for Southern Illinois feeders, both cattle and hogs, will be presented by W. E. Riegel, of Tolono. These are matters of vital interest to livestock farmers in all parts of the state and are worthy of special attention.

The general livestock situation will be discussed by Prof. W. C. Coffey, of the University of Illinois. The speaker will also deal with the question of increased sheep production, particularly as it applies to Southern Illinois farming conditions. No man in the state is better qualified to handle these subjects than is Prof. Coffey.

At the afternoon session Prof. F. B. Morrison, of the University of Wisconsin, will speak on "Feeding for Profit." Prof. Morrison is one of the leading authorities on dairy feeding in the United States, and will bring to Illinois farmers and dairymen the mation available along this line. "Cooperation in Dairy Production" will be handled by Carlton Trimble, one of Illinois' most successful dairymen, and Prof. R. E. Muckelroy, head of the Agricultural Department of the Southern Illinois Normal, will speak on the possibilities of dairying as a profitable farm business in Southern Illinois. This dairy session will be of interest and value to every farmer regardless of whether he may own one cow or a hundred.

Horticultural and Forestry Subjects.

A special session for those intersted in fruit growing has been arranged this same afternoon, and a variety of important horticultural subjects will be given attention. "Hill Land Orcharding" will be discussed by J. C. B. Heaton, the well known apple man of New Burnside. A. J. Harding, an extensive peach grower of Cobden, will speak upon "Peach Production." L. M. Smith, of Ozark, will talk upon the practical problems involved in successful orchard spraying, and L. R. Allen, of Carbondale, will tell of his experience in the handling of home orchards. Orchard possibilities in Southern Illinois will be discussed by C. E. Durst, of Anna.

An address and exhibit on farm forestry by Robert B. Miller, State Forester, will also be a special feature of the second day's program. Mr. Miller will discuss the necessity and advantages of having a farm woodlot, and presents detailed methods of successfully handling this part of the farm. The exhibit will show in a graphical way what can be realized from a small farm woodlot, and is especially prepared by the Federal Forest Service, Washington, D. C., for exhibit at Carbondale.

Farmers' Organiaztions.

Farm organization will be the chief subject of consideration on the last day of the conference. D. O. Thompson, secretary of the Illinois Agricultural Association, Chicago, will be the principal speaker at the forenoon session. His address will be followed by several short talks by farm bureau members in southern Illinois counties, relative to bureau work. Herbert Beattie, Sparta; N. F. Elder, Raleigh; G. H. Harrison, Marion, and H. B. Piper, Olney, are among these speakers.

The afternoon session will have to do with the development of Southern Illinois, both from the standpoint of agricultural and other industries. The advantages and opportunities of that section of the state, and how best to improve them will be discussed by the best informed men in Illinois. It will be a most instructive and helpful session, and one which no southern Illinoisian should miss. The following well known men will have a part in this unique program: Otis Glenn, Murphysboro; Senator W. A. Spence, Metropolis; E. A. Daley, Belleville; Ferdinand Kohl, Centralia; E. B. Jackson, Marion; N. R. Lesley, Sparta; Hon. L. L. Emmerson, Springfield; Fred Rolens, Murphysboro; A. T. Spivey, East St. Louis; Harry Taylor, Harrisburg; Hon. F. G. Blair, Springfield; Rev. J. W. Cummins, Marion; C. J. Thomas, Murphysboro, and A. C. Page, Chicago.

This will be a real booster's session of general interest to all, and one which will make for a Greater "Egypt" and a Greater Illinois.

SURE RELIEF FROM ITCHING SKIN DISEAS

A million gallons of lotions, ointments, salves or other forms of local treatment will not give any real permanent relief from skin diseases. Get this fact firmly in your mind, and there is hope for you.

The Chance that the Army Offers YOU

"As a corporal I was drawing down $38.10 a month every time the bugles blew 'Pay Day'.

"And when I read in the papers about the big civilian pay envelopes, civil life opportunities looked pretty good to me!

"I took up my old job when I got back and when then they raised my pay to $35.00 a week—almost as much as I got every month in the Army—well, I thought I was sitting on the world.

"But times have certainly changed! Thirty-five a week today goes like a breeze. Food has advanced, shoes cost more, and every time I buy a suit I think I'm paying for the war as well as fighting it.

"I'm classed, I guess, as just an unskilled worker, I left school too early and I'm sorry for it now.

And where'll I be ten years from now? Answer me that! Working for day wages, making a living and nothing more? I guess not—for I'm going back to join the Army!

"I'm going to take a job that will give me more free cash than I get today—a job that'll mean all my expenses paid—a training that will make me the kind of man who succeeds and a life that'll keep me feeling fit and fine."

Health, Travel and Training

Congress has appropriated $2,000,000.00 to be used in the Army Schools. In many schools and posts you will have the opportunity of being trained in the skilled trades and at practically all Army stations, schools are in operation in which you can improve your education.

You'll have enough out-door work to keep you in perfect trim. You'll learn the sort of discipline that makes a man able to handle other men. You'll have a fine crowd of buddies. You'll live a fine healthy life—no soft snap about it, but it will be a life that will make you a regular man.

You'll learn how to hold up your end in any company. You'll have an increased ability—a sure self-confidence on your return.

You'll be a part of America—one of its fighting men—its bulwarks of defense. If there's any trouble that the Army has to settle you'll have a red-blooded man's chance to do your share of the settling.

And three years from now, when the men who are working besides you now are still working for day wages, you will step out with a training that will command real money.

Think it over. The next three years at home; and no further along at the end.

Or the next three years in the Army, and a training that you can cash in on for the rest of your life. It's worth investigating, isn't it? Worth stopping in at the recruiting office to talk to the man in charge.

THE 14 ARMS OF THE SERVICE

The Recruiting Sergeant can give you the information that will help you decide which branch fits you best. In all of them you will get the fine training as a soldier that the United States offers all its men—in many branches you can get highly specialized training.

INFANTRY—The men who have made the name of "doughboy" feared and respected throughout the world welcome you to the comradeship. Fine fellows—good fun and good training in any school at the post you go to.

CAVALRY—When the horses are champing at the bit and the "yellow legs" mount up and the troop rides forth, there is a thrill that no old cavalryman can ever forget. A horse of your own—a good outdoor life and training for future success.

FIELD ARTILLERY—"Action Front" comes the command—then watch the boys with the red hat cord snap into it. A happy outfit—with the dash of mounted service added to interesting work that calls for head and hand. Motors if you wish.

CORPS OF ENGINEERS—Army engineering is known the world over for its excellence and an enlistment in the engineers can be the start of a young man's training in the various branches of engineering and in the mechanical and building trades.

COAST ARTILLERY—Living on the sea coasts, guarding big cities with big guns, getting time for study and a wide and good technical training, the C. A. C. man is preparing for a useful life and good pay and is having a good time while he's learning. The C. A. C. also mans the mobile big gun regiments throughout the country.

AIR SERVICE (including BALLOON CORPS)—The man who gets the early edge in experience with aeroplanes and balloons has a chance to cash in big on his army training. For flying is only in its infancy and it's going to be a profitable business for men with the right experience.

ORDNANCE DEPT.—The ordnance is appealing to the studious young American. To wide opportunities for study, it adds a business as well as a technical training.

SIGNAL CORPS—Whether it's laying a wire from a reel-cart at a gallop or installing a wireless station that will flash its message half around the world, the Signal Corps is there, and a man who learns radio telegraph and telephone work in the Signal Corps is always valuable.

MEDICAL DEPT.—Good experience, good pay, and training in all branches of hospital work. Excellent opportunity for future success. The Veterinary Corps teaches the care of horses as well as meat and milk inspection.

TANK CORPS—The man who knows gas motors and tractors or who wants to know them is invited to join the Tanks. Radio, machine gun and ordnance work are all parts of the Tank Corps work.

QUARTERMASTER CORPS—The Corps that feeds and clothes the Army offers a valuable training for future business. Interesting work for the man who likes horses in the Remount Service.

CONSTRUCTION DIVISION—Practical work in the many trades is part of the every day life of the Construction Division. Many opportunities to learn the trades of highly paid specialists.

CHEMICAL WARFARE SERVICE—For a man with a little knowledge of chemistry or for any ambitious young man who would like to get that knowledge, there is interesting work and rapid advancement in the C. W. S.

MOTOR TRANSPORT CORPS—A thorough practical training in motors and their accessories, and in driving as well, is given in the well-equipped schools of the Motor Transport Corps.

Carrying a Ton a Mile for less than a Cent

Freight rates have played a very small part in the rising cost of living.

Other causes—the waste of war, under-production, credit inflation—have added dollars to the cost of the necessities of life, while freight charges have added only cents.

The average charge for hauling a ton of freight a mile is less than a cent.

A suit of clothing that sold for $30 before the war was carried 2,265 miles by rail from Chicago to Los Angeles for 16½ cents.

Now the freight charge is 22 cents and the suit sells for $50.

The cost of the suit has increased 20 dollars.

The freight on it has increased only 5½ cents.

Other transportation charges enter into the cost of the finished article—carrying the wool to the mills and the cloth to the tailors—but these other charges amount to but a few cents more.

A given unit of any commodity will buy more transportation now than it ever did before in the history of the country. A ton of steel or a bushel of wheat will buy more transportation now than ever before.

Walker D. Hines
Dir. Gen'l of Railroads

The $10 pair of shoes that used to sell for $5 goes from the New England factory to the Florida dealer for a freight charge of 5⅔ cents—only one cent more than the pre-war rate.

Beef pays only two-thirds of a cent a pound freight from Chicago to New York.

American freight rates are the lowest in the world.

CORN TAKES AN UPWARD TURN

Chicago, Feb. 11.—Rapid upturns in the value of corn today followed a broad commission house demand based largely on belief that supplies here would remain light even tho cars were furnished in plenty. The close was unsettled, 2 1-8c to 4 1-2c net higher with May $1.30 7-8 to $1.31 and July $1.28 to $1.28 1-8 Oats gained 1 1-8@1 1-4c to $1 5-8@1 3-4c and provisions 10c to 80c.

Regardless of an evident tendency of farmers to hold back grain the corn market weakened during the first part of the day with a majority of dealers inclining to regard a railroad strike as more bearish than bullish.

Later, however, the attention of the trade veered to the outright failure of receipts to grow in volume and to indications that the failure would continue as rural shippers were refusing to accept cars tendered.

Oats like corn jumped upward after showing temporary weakness. Domestic demand was reported ken and country offerings meager.

Provisions were ruled by the action of grain.

TRADING ON STOCK EXCHANGE DWINDLED

New York, Feb. 11.—Trading on the stock exchange today was divided into three distinct phases a heavy to weak tone prevading the early dealings with irregular rallies during the mid-season and another sharp reversal at the disorderly close.

Very heavy offerings of the first hour, which comprised almost one-third of the day's turnover, represented a combination of enforced liquidation and bearish pressure.

While the decline was in full swing virtually all classes of stocks established new low records. In many instances losses ranging from 25 to 100 points from highest quotations of the previous month were registered.

The most disturbing feature was the weakness of investment rails which rallied only feebly even when stocks of less intrinsic worth responded for short coverings. Some of the high class transportations were at lowest prices in one to almost three years.

Among high priced specialties General Motors was again in the foreground at an extreme decline of 11 1-2 points only a small part of which was retrieved. Other motors, oils, equipments, shippings and steels lost 2 to 8 1-2 points. United States steel failing to a fraction over 96 with virtually no recovery. Sales amounted to 1,375,000 shares. The movement of bonds was in keping with stocks, rails losing 1 to 1 1-2 points. Liberty issues were irregular, internationals steady total sales (par value) $14,150,000. Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $2.

Pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and tastes very pleasant.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2¼ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Progressive Farmers

Demand the World's Best

The "Wallis" Tractor

Leads Them All

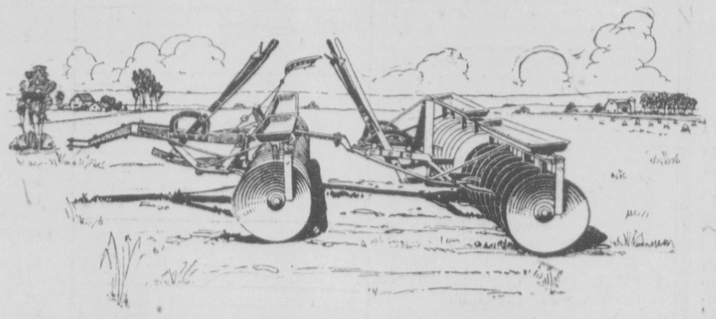

The "Wallis Cub" Tractor has demonstrated its leadership over other makes by every test, and holds its place by actual supremacy of endurance, economy and performance.

The "Wallis" is built like a battleship, strong, reliable, swift---yet without an ounce of excessive weight.

All the field demonstrations show it to be in a class by itself as to lowest operating cost and by plowing most land per bottom, hour after hour, day after day and year after year.

May we call and explain all details of our tractor or send for free descriptive literature on anything you may be interested in? Please let us hear from you.

Progressive farmers who follow a crop rotation system will plant a large acreage to corn and oats next spring. The area will be larger than usual because wheat has been on the increase during the last two years and in justice to the soil the crop must be changed. Are you prepared?

We have three showrooms and service stations in our enlarged territory and are thus able to make prompt delivery and render efficient service—if you should need it. Right now when you are not busy with crops or other farm duties would be a good time to talk with you regarding the purchase of a tractor and other farm implements which you may need.
